Description

Oil on canvas, circa 1860, depicting a scene of daily life on the still-rural Montmartre hill. The work is unsigned, likely because the painting appears unfinished. This is most noticeable at the man's feet, where his shoes are only roughly sketched. Overall, the painting is of fine quality, with details that draw the eye: a sunset, the orchard, the bricks, and the cat under the roof trusses. It has a beautiful naturalistic atmosphere. Dimensions: 38 x 46 cm In very good condition, canvas well-stretched.
