Description

Pair of Empire-era candlesticks in patinated and gilded bronze - Mercury gilding
A very elegant pair of Empire-period candlesticks, crafted from patinated bronze and gilded bronze, featuring fine-quality chiseling and a striking contrast between the dark patina and the gilding. Each candlestick features a tapered, fluted shaft, punctuated by rich decorative elements in gilded bronze: leaf friezes, foliage motifs, and finely worked bands. The upper section features a patinated bronze cup with chiseled decoration. The highly decorative bases rest on sculpted animal-shaped feet, typical of the ornamental style of the Empire period. The mercury gilding, with its warm tones, beautifully highlights the dark-patinated bronze and emphasizes the delicacy of the various
