Description

Contemporary School. Jacques Moury (1927-2021) was an artist, a French painter and watercolorist known for his seascapes and harbor scenes. This painting depicts a seaside view, with the evocative title "Le Port de Sans Souci." The title "Sans Souci" may refer to the former major cruise port of Santo Domingo in the Caribbean. However, it is also very common for painters to give this affectionate nickname to a small, peaceful cove they have discovered on the French coast, or for it to be a simple allegory inviting the viewer to daydream. Signed lower right. Frame dimensions: 49.5 x 42 cm (original frame by the framer Geo) Dimensions of the oil painting: 35 x 27.5 cm Good condition. Shipping via Colissimo with appropriate protective packaging; expect 30 euros
