

A Late 19th-century Cigar Box

580 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Solid wood

Description

A late 19th-century cigar box/smoker's companion. Made of exotic wood and in very good condition, the box features a lid richly ornamented with bronze and an original handle, opening to reveal the upper section containing the smoker's accessories. The lower section unfolds into two opening shelves. An interesting piece for collectors of this era.
