Description

A charming Fede ring in 18-karat gold, featuring two joined hands. An ancient symbol of fidelity, union, and commitment. The central motif is crafted in rose gold, framed by chiseled foliage in green gold, creating a lovely contrast of tones and a very delicate design. This type of ring, derived from an ancient design dating back to antiquity and widely popularized in the 18th and 19th centuries, was traditionally given as a token of affection, engagement, or friendship. French craftsmanship from the late 19th century. Traces of a master's hallmark are present. Weight: 1.9 g Ring size: 60 Condition: Overall in good condition, with some minor wear on the foliage
