Description

An elegant porcelain serving plate with a scalloped rim, adorned with a sky-blue background and rich gold decoration. The central medallion depicts a polychrome romantic scene set in a romantic landscape, surrounded by floral borders. The reverse bears an apocryphal red mark reading "Château des Tuileries." French work in the style of the Sèvres Manufactory, likely from the late 19th or early 20th century. In good overall condition, with signs of age and visible wear on the gilding. No visible chips or cracks. D. 22 cm
