Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Gold

Description

A 14-karat white gold ring featuring a pear-shaped emerald weighing approximately 2.50 carats. Its green hue is brought to life by a visible garden setting, giving the stone beautiful depth. The emerald is prong-set at the center of a luminous arrangement of brilliant-, baguette-, and trapezoid-cut diamonds, with an estimated total weight of 0.76 carats. Despite its generous size, this ring maintains an elegant and balanced silhouette on the hand.Metal: 14-karat white gold, 585 hallmarkCenter stone: Pear-shaped emerald - approx. 2.50 caratsSurrounding stones: Brilliant-, trapezoid-, and baguette-cut diamonds--approx. 0.76 caratsWeight: 3.8 gramsSize: 52 (resizing available upon request)Very good overall condition
