Description

A large impressive clock made of finely chiseled bronze gilded with mercury, mounted on a white Carrara marble base and depicting Study and Philosophy. The two figures are based on models by the sculptor Louis Simon Boizot. The large white enamel dial is signed "Pochon à Paris" for Jean-Charles Pochon, a clockmaker active around 1780. The clock is in very good original condition, with the mercury gilding beautifully preserved. The movement requires cleaning by a clockmaker; the balance wheel is missing. Louis XVI period, a Parisian piece from around 1780. Dimensions: Height = 54.5 cm Width = 69 cm Depth = 15.5 cm
