Description

An elegant pair of large antique cushions crafted from a sumptuous Italian brocade in shades of gold and blue, adorned with a rich design of foliage, stylized flowers, and Baroque-inspired arabesques. The refinement of the design, the depth of the colors, and the quality of the weave evoke the luxurious textiles used in Italian aristocratic residences of the 18th and 19th centuries. Their presence immediately adds a touch of prestige and warmth to a classic interior, a library, a reception room, or a room with character. The cushions are designed to be stuffed so they are ready to be placed on a sofa, a bench, or a ceremonial armchair. Their generous size and timeless design also make them remarkable decorative elements for a castle, a mansion, or an interior inspired by the European art of
