

19th-century Empire-style Table Easel With Swan-neck Arms, Display Stand, And Wooden Base For A

500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 83

Width : 35

Description

unit: 500EURpair: 900EURAn elegant and rare pair of Empire-style oak table easels (or parlor easels) dating from the second half of the 19th century. Width: 35 cmMaximum height: 83 cmCondition: Very good original conditionThis beautifully crafted piece is distinguished by its top, crowned with two magnificent, finely carved swan neck, an iconic and highly sought-after motif in the Empire decorative repertoire.The upper crossbar features delicate carved and turned detailing. The central wooden rack is fully functional, allowing the height of the picture stand to be adjusted using its original locking mechanism. The rear leg, with its adjustable tilt, ensures perfect stability, making it ideal for displaying a masterpiece, an icon, a miniature, or a precious art book. In beautiful original

Dealer

Ars Longa

Fine Art ? Antique & After the Antique

Mobile : 06 30 55 85 75

14 Rue Beauregard

Paris 75002

condition. A warm, amber-blond patina perfectly highlights the wood's grain. Note: there are slight, minor signs of wear that attest to its age without detracting from its aesthetic appeal. Pair available for purchase