Description

From the circle of Pierre de Gobert. Unsigned oil on canvas, "Court Lady with a Small Dog and a Red Drape." 90.5 × 74.5 cm. Early 18th-century French school. Pierre Gobert (1662-1744) was one of the official portraitists of the great ladies of the court and particularly enjoyed incorporating pets (especially small dogs such as miniature spaniels or cavalier king charles spaniels) as well as theatrical drapery to accentuate his subject's nobility and inner grace. Our painting is a perfect example of this trend in court portraits. Unframed. Good condition. 1,880 euros.
