Description

A beautiful pair of vintage nightstands or end tables from the 1980s, featuring an original, graphic design. Made of safety glass, these two small tables stand out for their superb optical effect: the legs are deliberately off-center, creating a striking visual impression and a very contemporary interplay of lines. A classic example of 1980s design, at once minimalist, elegant, and particularly decorative. They can be used as nightstands, end tables, side tables, or small display tables. Dimensions: Width: 57 cm Depth: 41 cm Height: 49 cm Total diagonal length: 65 cm Condition: Good overall condition for their age, no scratches Note: a small chip on one corner of each piece, visible in the photos. This flaw is factored into the selling price. An original pair full of character, ideal for a vintage,
