Description

LOUIS XVI-STYLE SIDE TABLE Made of gilted and carved wood. Circular top finely openworked with a frieze of geometric motifs, covered with a recessed breccia marble top. A band with vertical motifs, the connecting spandrel carved with a floral rosette in relief. The entire piece rests on four tapered, fluted legs, with a connecting spandrel at the junction between the base and the band, decorated with arrow motifs. The four legs are connected by an X-shaped crossbar surmounted in the center by a small carved fleur-de-lis.
