Description

Tablecloth and 12 matching napkins in damask linen--Y B monogram--circa 1900Antique table set comprising a tablecloth and twelve matching napkins, made of damask linen with a beautifully woven texture. The finely woven design features a lovely pattern of ribbon flowers alternating with vermiculated motifs, creating subtle shimmering effects depending on the light. The tablecloth bears two monograms "Y B" hand-embroidered in the center, while each of the twelve napkins is also monogrammed The set is a fine example of late 19th-century linen craftsmanship, evident in both the delicacy of the damask and the embroidery.
