Description

Furniture set consisting of a console table and a matching carved wood mirror, made in the Louis XV (Late Baroque) style, produced in the first half of the 20th century. The piece features the classic sinuous lines and rocaille motifs typical of the 18th century, creating a striking decorative statement. The base features an openwork apron with scrollwork and rests on four curved legs joined by a central stretcher, topped by a shaped polychrome onyx slab. The large matching mirror is finished with an elaborate carved crest. Structurally sound, the piece shows widespread loss of its porporina (gilt-effect) finish due to age and wear. The onyx top bears an old, visible repair/glued seam, yet remains stable and fully functional. A quote for the restoration of the gilding and marble surface is available upon
