Description

Elegant double-leaf partition door, made entirely of wrought iron and characterised by refined craftsmanship. The design reimagines the classic doorway, transforming it into a decorative gate through a harmonious blend of botanical elements inspired by climbing plant tendrils, lending the piece a sense of lightness and elegance. Italy, 1950s. Condition: Very good; signs of wear and use consistent with age. Dimensions: 198 x H 219 cm; thickness 5.5 cm.
