lacquer and richly decorated with cascades of gilded bronze, finely chiseled on the legs and feet. It features five drawers, including one in the center and two on each side. The drawers on each side, finished in Chinese lacquer, feature an Asian motif--namely, a lively scene with figures and a mountainous landscape. The sides of this desk feature a central panel in dark lacquer, also with an Asian motif--figures in traditional dress amid stylized vegetation, a pagoda, etc. Scalloped top, with a Havana-colored leather surface and sliding side shelves, also covered with original patinated leather. Gilded brass moldings and mascarons at each corner. The entire piece rests on curved cabriole legs, the upper part of which--the shoulder--is embellished with a bronze trim.
