

Cream Jar Made Of Mennecy Soft Porcelain, 18th Century

110 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 8 cm

Description

A covered cream jar made of Mennecy soft porcelain, baluster-shaped and resting on a small pedestal, with a side handle. Hand-painted polychrome decoration featuring bouquets and scattered flowers in shades of pink, mauve, blue, yellow, and green. The domed lid is adorned with small flowering sprigs and topped with a knob shaped like a red fruit resting on raised leaves. The handle is also embellished with pink floral motifs. The "DV" mark is stamped below the foot, standing for "Duc de Villeroy," a mark characteristic of the Mennecy manufactory. Condition: generally good, with age-related wear and slight surface soiling, as well as a few minor firing irregularities.
