Description

Beautiful original watercolor on paper, signed Jean Timmermans in the lower right corner. Jean Timmermans (1899-1986) was a Belgian painter, watercolorist, draftsman, and illustrator, best known for his landscapes, seascapes, and cityscapes. This work depicts a rural landscape rendered with a free, loose brushstroke in a luminous palette of greens, blues, and yellows. The watercolor is mounted under glass, with a light-colored mat and a gilded frame. A beautiful decorative work from the 20th century, of interest to collectors of Belgian art and modern watercolors. In good overall condition, with slight signs of age visible on the frame and mat.
