Description

Tea caddy (natsume) for matcha tea used in the tea ceremony, featuring a graceful camellia flower design executed in gold and vermilion maki-e lacquer on a deep black lacquer background. This natsume embodies the understated refinement of Japanese aesthetics. Its simple design allows the beauty of the flower to speak for itself, creating a sophisticated piece that subtly changes with the light. For the tea ceremony, the tea master selects his utensils according to the seasons, guests, and events... The camellia flower is often used for floral decorations in tea houses in late winter and early spring. The red camellia symbolizes love. Artist: Kinsei Hakuyudo, lacquer artist from Wajima Japan, 7.6 x 7.2 cm With its original box signed by the artist.
