Description

Coffee table produced by Negroni and attributed to Pierre Guariche. The rectangular white laminate tabletop is set into a cut-out plywood base covered with a single piece of mahogany veneer cut into an X shape. The ends of the base extend above the tabletop, highlighting the piece's construction. Visible circular metal fasteners complete the assembly. Produced by: Negroni, France, circa 1970. Provenance: La Mongie Tourmalet Residence, circa 1970
