Description

Important Art Deco bronze sculpture signed on the base OULINE (active between 1918 and 1940) and stamped "bronze" in relief. Alexandre Ouline was a Belgian-born sculptor active in France, known for his realistic depictions of workers and athletes. The work depicts a man exerting himself as he pulls on a tow rope. Very realistic. Original green patina with subtle nuances, very well preserved, with a beautiful sheen and pronounced relief. Overall dimensions of the bronze: 60 cm by 39 cm high. The base measures approximately 58 cm long by 19 cm wide. Weight: 15 kg 470. For France and the European Union, this bronze will be shipped via MBE; please allow for a shipping fee contribution of 100 EUR. If you wish, it can be picked up in Albi by appointment.
