PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Venetian Neo-renaissance Table In Painted Polychrome Wood With Musicians Monkeys - 19th Centur

1 250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Painted wood

Length : 70 cm

Width : 60 cm

Height : 72.5 cm

Description

Elegant Venetian Renaissance-style side table, crafted in painted and polychrome wood, dating from the late 19th or very early 20th century.The piece is distinguished by the remarkable richness of its hand-painted decoration, featuring scrolling foliage, arabesques, vegetal motifs and grotesques, animated by musicians, birds and fantastical animals, in a sophisticated decorative style directly inspired by the Italian Renaissance.The shaped and serpentine-edged tabletop displays a particularly refined composition enhanced with numerous polychrome ornaments. The lower shelf, also richly decorated, echoes the vegetal motifs of the tabletop and contributes to the overall harmony of the piece.The gracefully curved and sculptural legs further enhance its theatrical Venetian

Dealer

ARTENKO
19th and 20th-Century Decorative Arts
Mobile : 0770489176

58 rue monceau
Paris 75008

character.The table retains a beautiful aged patina, with signs of wear consistent with its age, contributing to its authenticity and charm. The rich and unusual painted decoration is unquestionably the principal attraction of this exceptional piece.Period: Late 19th - early 20th centuryStyle: Venetian Renaissance / Italian Neo-RenaissanceMaterial: Painted and polychrome woodDimensions: 70 cm long × 60 cm wide × 72.5 cm highA striking and highly decorative piece, distinguished by its rare figurative and animal decoration, which would be equally at home in a collector's interior, library, cabinet of curiosities or historic residence.Carefully packaged and promptly shipped.