

PROANTIC

LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Plate - Venus And The Cupids, Majolica, Italy / France, 19th Century.

480 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Diameter : 41

Height : 6,5

Description

Hand-painted majolica plate, inspired by Italian Renaissance designs (in the style of Urbino, Deruta, and Castelli). A mythological/allegorical scene depicting Venus (or another female figure/nymph) resting, dressed in blue and white gowns, against a landscape backdrop, accompanied by two winged cupids (putti). On the rim, a rich and dense grotesque ornamentation on a deep cobalt blue background. Among the plant scrolls are stylized masks and faces (grotesques) as well as fantastical elements characteristic of Renaissance and Neo-Renaissance decoration. Neo-Renaissance, Italy or France, 19th century. Diameter 41 cm, height 6.5 cm. Good condition, with slight chipping along the edges. Free shipping within the European Union! I ship packages via insured mail

Dealer

Galerie la Belle Epoque

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : +48 601852083

Bukowska 17

Poznan 60193

(DPD or DHL). All items are packed very carefully. Payment by international bank transfer. I will issue a certificate of authenticity upon request.