Description

This sculpture of an angel is a 19th-century work, in the style of the 14th century, based on a workshop influenced by Reims. This is particularly evident in the face, with its broad forehead, almond-shaped eyes, and smile. Her curly hair, a certain sway of her hips, and her swirling cloak confirm this inspiration. With its elongated proportions, this smiling sculpture radiates great grace. Dimensions: H 52 cm / L 14 cm / W 10 cm.
