Description

Grand Tour-style bronze tazza. An elegant Pompeian-style tazza made of bronze and slate, designed by the famous French sculptor Ferdinand Levillain (1837-1905) in collaboration with Ferdinand Barbedienne. The tazza is adorned with a bas-relief medallion in the "Neo-Greek" or "Pompeian" style, depicting the classical scene in which Zeus presents Pandora with a sealed jar or chest. It features detailed neoclassical handles adorned with volutes. France, circa 1860. Signed "F. Levillain". Dimensions: 23H x 41L x 33P
