Description

An elegant 19th-century console table in the Louis XV style, featuring a creamy white patina and richly carved rocaille decoration. Its ornate mid-section is adorned with a central fan-shaped motif, framed by scrolls and foliage in relief. It rests on two curved legs, accented with plant motifs and ending in scrolls. The nuances of the patina highlight the details of the carving. The piece is topped by a molded marble tabletop in reddish-brown tones, crisscrossed with white and bluish-gray veins, offering a beautiful contrast to the lightness of the base. Period: 19th century. Style: Louis XV. Condition: very good condition. Dimensions: width 79 cm × depth 40 cm × height 79.5 cm.
