Description

We are offering this charming antique porcelain statuette or figurine from Sitzendorf, depicting a young man or a gallant gardener in the Rococo style. * 19th century* The German Sitzendorf porcelain manufactory, founded in the mid-19th century in Thuringia, is particularly renowned for its hand-painted figurines, romantic scenes, and rocaille motifs embellished with raised floral appliqués. Our subject: A young dandy or "Rosenkavalier" (Knight of the Rose) wearing a bright blue jacket with a pink lining edged in gold, brown and maroon striped trousers, and a black tricorn hat. The figure, depicted standing, slender and elegant, leans against a tree trunk that rises from a scalloped rocaille base, enhanced with gilding and adorned with small flowers in relief, as well as a watering can at his
