

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Grand Tour: Bronze Statuettes And Columns From Rome And Antiquity

200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Set of 4 collectible and decorative items in the Roman Antiquity style, typical of "Grand Tour" objects (travel souvenirs from the 19th and early 20th centuries). The set includes: 1. The Lupa Capitolina (Capitoline She-Wolf): A depiction of the she-wolf nursing Romulus and Remus, the emblem of the city of Rome. Made of bronze/regula with a dark antique patina on a pedestal. 2. The Thorn-Picker (Spinario / Il Spinario): A bronze statuette depicting a young boy removing a thorn from his foot, a masterpiece of Hellenistic/Roman sculpture. 3. The Temple of Castor and Pollux (or Roman Ruin): Architectural model depicting engraved bronze/brass columns (DUER / RUIN), resting on a yellow/sienna marble base. 4. Trajan's Column (or commemorative column): A miniature bronze

Dealer

Eleousa gallery

Antiquités

Mobile : 0749880239

4 place de la croix

Ouroux-sur-Saône 71370

column topped by a statue, mounted on a beveled marble pedestal. Column height: 12.5 cm Spinario height: 10 cm She-wolf length: 10 cm