Description

Antique adjustable and extendable 19th-century Napoleon III-era music box. This rare and charming piece served as both a music box and a light for the pianist, thanks to its two built-in candlesticks. Materials: Solid wood and rosewood, brass/bronze details and finials, original velvet-padded top. Lead-weighted base. Sliding extension mechanism on each side. Two chiseled brass candleholders/shafts on the sides. Central cabinet with removable velvet lid (featuring a pull ring and gilding).
