Description

Antique perfume cabinet from the Napoleon III era, crafted from mother-of-pearl and gilded brass. The piece features an oval shape mounted on a brass frame adorned with scrollwork, resting on an openwork base. The upper section, made entirely of mother-of-pearl with iridescent sheen, opens via a glass door to reveal two small cut-glass perfume bottles, each with its own metal stopper. They are held in a gilded brass bottle holder with openwork decoration. The frame features a decoration of fluted stems, scrolls, small spheres, and beaded borders, characteristic of toilettries and perfume items made in the second half of the 19th century. 20 cm tall. The set is in very fine condition.
