Description

Bronze sculpture depicting a red deer stag and a doe in a naturalistic landscape. This work was created by the sculptor Jules Edmond Masson and cast by the Société des Bronzes de Paris. Description of the work The sculpture depicts a majestic red deer, with imposing antlers, portrayed in a vigilant and attentive pose. At its feet stands a doe grazing, forming with it a harmonious and natural composition. The piece is fully in keeping with the 19th-century French tradition of animal sculpture, characterized by a focus on anatomical precision, movement, and meticulous rendering of details. The bronze features a superb warm patina, with deep, golden-brown hues that elegantly highlight the animals' musculature as well as the texture and relief of their coats. The ensemble rests on a heavy
