Description

An imposing octagonal mirror with glazing beads, framed by rich, finely chiseled bronze ornamentation in the Baroque style. The frame is decorated with foliage motifs, shells, and volutes, with the corners reinforced by rocaille elements. The central pane is surrounded by beveled secondary mirrors, accentuating the effect of depth and brilliance.This wall mirror is crowned by a large openwork pediment and finished at the bottom with a matching decorative finial, lending elegance and verticality to the piece as a whole. This is a spectacular piece of decorative art, likely from the late 19th or early 20th century, ideal for a classic interior, a grand entryway, or a reception room.Dimensions:Height: 116 cm - Width: 69 cm - Depth: 12 cm
