Description

Oil on canvas, 65 cm x 50 cm, sold with its gilded wooden frame, 80 cm x 60 cm; signed "Filippini" in the lower right corner. In excellent condition. Sold with invoice and certificate. Fast and careful shipping. Emilio Filippini (1870-1938) was born in Cattolica. He enrolled at the Academy of Fine Arts in Venice, but interrupted his studies in 1890 to perform his military service in Lucca. His stylistic influences include Guglielmo Ciardi, the pictorial serenity of Pietro Fragiaco, and the Verismo approach of Giacomo Favretto. He participated in exhibitions in several cities in northern Italy, notably Ravenna, Rimini, Bologna, and Padua. In 1999, the monograph "Emilio Filippini, Solitary Painter 1870-1938" was published, and more recently, the exhibition

"Emilio Filippini, Poet of Light."
