Description

Large oil-on-canvas painting from the School of Paris, signed by B. LIGNON (Bernard Lignon, 1928-1917) and dated 1952, depicting a panoramic view of the Place du Tertre in Paris's Montmartre district. The work is presented in its elegant original "Montparnasse" frame, made of carved wood with a patina finish. Very good overall condition. Dimensions: 97 cm x 84 cm / stretcher: 73 cm x 60 cm Bernard Lignon was a French painter born in Montpellier in 1921. An Expressionist artist, his works were highly successful, particularly those depicting the streets of Paris and Venice, as well as his horse races. The quality of his work allowed him to forge friendships with figures as diverse as César, Yves Montand, Lino Ventura, and Baron Empain. In the 1950s, he was one of the most prominently
