Description

A very beautiful pair of Nanjing vases made of polychrome-glazed porcelain on a crackled background, resting on elegant openwork gilded bronze bases. The vases are richly decorated with lively scenes depicting dignitaries, warriors, horsemen, and court figures moving through a vast mountainous landscape. The compositions, executed with great finesse, alternate between military and ceremonial scenes set against a backdrop of stylized mountains, pavilions, and vegetation--a hallmark of Nanjing porcelain from the second half of the 19th century. The decoration is executed in a harmonious palette of greens, blues, pinks, and mauves on an ivory background with visible craquelure, lending depth and refinement to the overall effect. The gilded bronze mounts, finely chiseled and
