Louis XV-era Fan In Its Display Frame

1 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

A beautiful Louis XV-era fan from the 18th century, finely hand-painted on leaf, presented in an elegant fan-shaped glass frame with a gilded wooden base. The central design depicts a lively, allegorical courtly scene featuring figures set against a landscape, framed by painted panels of landscapes and a rich floral and ornamental decoration.The reverse side is also decorated with an elegant floral motif, reflecting the care taken in crafting this piece. The piece is presented in a frame designed to ensure its preservation and provide a refined decorative display.Dimensions:Height: 40 cmWidth: 56 cmThickness: 3.5 cmBase diameter: 10 cmAn elegant collector's piece, ideal for a classic interior or a collection of 18th-century art objects.

Dealer

La Vitrine

Objets d'art et de décoration

Tel : +33 6 46 07 16 16

5 Rue des Rosiers- Marché Biron - Stand 73

Saint-Ouen 93400