Description

Oil painting on paper originally mounted on wood, unsigned. It measures 39 cm x 30 cm, unframed; 46 cm x 36 cm overall. Depicting a bustling street filled with people and a streetcar, painted around 1910. It resembles a streetcar from Brussels or Ghent. Any suggestions on this subject are welcome. A steel pocket or pocket-watch, 25 mm in diameter, is placed in the bell tower, secured at the back in a niche; see photo. It is not functional; the winding mechanism is missing, and the hour hand is broken. It needs to be repaired or replaced with a working one. This painting, originally mounted on wood, has a small visible flaw at the top center (see photo); otherwise, it is in very good condition. The painting, which has never been cleaned and is slightly dirty, is in very good
