Description

- A coffee cup on a saucer and its saucer, made of polychrome porcelain from the Mousseline set produced by the Jean Pouyat factory in Limoges.- The La céramique catalog tells us that there are two types of Mousseline sets: One is the Mousseline without the pedestal, and the other is the Mousseline with a pedestal. - This coffee cup and saucer belong to the latter type.- First presented in 1862 in the La céramique catalog (cat. no. 31) by the Pouyat factory, the Mousseline set with a foot was clearly a great success and appears to have been widely distributed.- A continuous band of white fleurs-de-lis with green and gold foliage on a blue background.- Curved cup handle. - Gold-leaf borders and fillets on the cup's foot, handle, and rim, as well as on the rim and center of the saucer. - The interior of the coffee cup and the central circle of the saucer are white. - The porcelain is translucent and delicate, like an eggshell, and a perfect white a secret mastered by the Pouyat family, who at the time rivaled the whites produced by the Sèvres National Porcelain Manufactory.- This white color was achieved using kaolin from the Saint-Yrieix-la-Perche mine in Haute-Vienne, which was owned by the Pouyat family. - Among their clients was the Sèvres National Porcelain Manufactory, to which they supplied kaolin.- Signed in chrome green with the factory's fine-line stamp: J.P.L. for Jean Pouyat Limoges beneath the cup and the saucer.- Date: late 19th century, circa 1870-1890.-

Reminder to buyers regarding the right of withdrawal for online purchases on my Proantic website.- Must be read before purchasing on my Proantic-hosted sales website.- The right of withdrawal applies to sales made on my Proantic sales site. - The withdrawal period is 14 days following the buyer's receipt of the item or goods. - The buyer must notify me via email or by certified mail, without needing to provide a justification or reason, before the 14-day period provided for by law upon receipt of the package or item.- The buyer has the right to change their mind and has a 14-business-day cooling-off period as provided for by this right of withdrawal law, and I respect this right. - After this period, the sale will be considered final and binding. - The costs of returning the item by mail or through a carrier are the buyer's responsibility in the event of withdrawal by the buyer. - The buyer is required to return the item within 14 days of receiving the item or package in the original condition in which it was received, without any breakage or damage to the item, and in the same packaging in which it was received, with the same shipping costs and with insurance covering the item for an amount equal to the sale price listed on my Proantic website as arranged by the seller, and must email me the proof-of-deposit receipt issued by the post office when the package or item was dropped off at the post office, or the waybill issued by the carrier. - All sales made on my Proantic website are covered by insurance purchased from La Poste when the item or package is shipped, covering loss or theft up to the purchase price paid by the buyer. - La Poste does not insure against breakage or damage to the item or object; only theft and loss are covered for the shipment of packages.- Additional insurance covering breakage of the item, up to the price paid by the buyer on my Proantic website, is always purchased from the carrier when the item is shipped by them. - The buyer is subject to legal penalties if they do not return the item within this 14-day period and in good condition.- A refund for the item will be issued within 14 days of the seller's receipt of the item or package and after the condition of the item has been verified. - If the item or product is found not to be in its original condition, the sale will be considered final with no refund, and the right of withdrawal will not apply. - The refund for the item or product will be issued via the same payment method (check, bank transfer, PayPal) that the buyer used when making the purchase on my Proantic sales site.- If the buyer paid via PayPal, they must take the necessary steps themselves through PayPal to request a refund, specifically by going to the "Disputes" section and opening a dispute case involving themselves, PayPal, and the seller.- This reminder regarding sales on my Proantic store is intended for litigious individuals and those acting in bad faith. - I advise litigious and bad-faith individuals not to buy anything on my Proantic listing; this will prevent me from wasting my time and money on legal proceedings. - Fortunately, most of the time my sales on the Proantic site go very smoothly, with customers who are generally friendly, pleasant, and acting in good faith. - Best regards - Mr. Pineaud.
