Description

Stunning vintage floor vase made of West German ceramic (West German Pottery), produced by the renowned Scheurich factory in the 1970s (model numbered 486-38 on the base). This iconic piece stands out for its unique jug-like shape with a single handle and its magnificent textured glaze in the Fat Lava style. The design features a striking color gradient: a matte brown base topped with a volcanic glaze in shades of beige and cream, accented by a subtle sea-green/turquoise border. Perfect for adding a retro, bohemian, or mid-century modern touch to your interior decor. Manufacturer: Scheurich (West Germany) Period: 1970s Model: 486-38 (38 cm tall) Colors: Brown, cream, beige, and hints of green
