Antique rectangular frame dating from the second half of the 19th century (Napoleon III period), crafted in the Louis XIII style. This beautifully crafted piece features a solid wood frame covered with molded and gilded stucco. It features rich and meticulous decoration: an outer frieze adorned with foliage scrolls and volutes sculpted in relief, complemented on the inside by a delicate molding with rhythmic geometric motifs.

The back of the frame reveals its period construction with cross-mitered reinforcements typical of 19th-century framing workshops, ensuring the structure's exceptional sturdiness.
