

Silver "fede" Wedding Ring With A Setting Shaped Like Two Clasped Hands

100 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

A silver "fede" ring (committed faith) with a setting formed by two clasped hands. This motif of two clasped hands (dextrarum junctio), already in use in ancient Rome (as seen, for example, on the reverse side of certain aurei or denarii), is a symbol of faith, of vows, and of fidelity. Ring size : 58/59 (EU) - R (UK) - 8 3/4 (US) Weight: 1.09 g.
