Description

Charming hand crafted French low stool in Wabi Sabi style, mid 19th Century. A beautiful primitive brutalist piece in natural oak with pronounced grain. On three tree branch wooden legs. The tabouret gathered a beautiful patina over the years that make it a characterful decorative piece in your interior. This farmhouse stool can also be used as small side or console table to showcase your favorite item or plant. A minimalistic designed piece of furniture that breaths history and stories of a begone era.
