

Bust Of A Noblewoman - Charles Le Brun (1619-1690)

7 200 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Marble

Description

An elegant bust depicting a noblewoman in the French aristocratic style, crafted from fine white statuary marble and characterized by exquisite craftsmanship. The figure is depicted with her head tilted slightly upward, wearing a serene and composed expression that highlights the nobility of her features and the grace of the composition as a whole. The elaborate hairstyle, embellished with a delicate floral motif, and the rich drapery of the gown attest to the sculptor's remarkable skill in rendering details. The soft folds of the fabric, the bow at the neckline, and the meticulous modeling of the face lend the work great elegance and formal harmony. The sculpture bears the signature "Charles Le Brun" (1619-1690), a renowned French painter and decorator, on the side--a detail that enhances its

Dealer

Antichità Goglia

furnitures, sculptures, paintings, pendulum clock

Tel : 0039 3476092521

Mobile : 0039 3476092521

Viale Europa, 287

Aversa 81031

appeal as a collector's item and decorative piece. The whiteness of the statuary marble further enhances the purity of the forms and the luminosity of the surface, making this bust an important decorative element for classical interiors, historic residences, or art and antique collections. A work of great charm and dramatic presence, ideal for enhancing entryways, living rooms, studies, or collections dedicated to European sculpture in the neoclassical and academic styles. Period: Late 17th century; Provenance: France. Dimensions: Height 78 cm; Condition: Excellent condition; Documentation: Certificate of authenticity. Assistance: We are at your disposal for further clarification, information, and images; Shipping: Available throughout Italy, Europe, and the rest of the world. Reasonable prices, maximum security, and full traceability. (To be arranged privately). We wish you a good day Antichità Goglia