Description

Refined sideboard crafted from fir wood, finely carved and painted in lean tempera in shades of white and sage green. The piece features a clean-lined silhouette distinguished by slightly curved legs. It is fitted with two doors, operated by locks and keys made of lost-wax cast bronze, opening onto two spacious internal shelves designed for practical storage. Further embellishment comes from the painted decorative motifs, featuring geometric panels and phytomorphic interlacing patterns, the latter adorning the sides and the top surface. This is a sideboard of great taste and sophistication, capable of adding a touch of class
