Description

Pair of Art Deco bookends featuring flamingos - Adam Féron
A superb pair of Art Deco bookends depicting two stylized flamingos, signed A. Féron (Adam Féron). The birds, with the elegant, geometric lines characteristic of Art Deco, feature a beautiful verdigris patina and rest on onyx and natural stone bases in shades of yellow and honey. A beautiful blend of animal sculpture and functional design, particularly decorative in a library, an office, or a home with character. France, circa 1925-1930.
