Description

A rare and spectacular centerpiece consisting of a large central bowl of cut crystal, flanked by two decorative horns also made of crystal, resting on a sumptuous, finely chiseled gilt-bronze base. The piece features a particularly ornate design of interlacing scrolls and plant motifs, typical of the late 19th-century naturalist style and early Art Nouveau. The delicacy of the crystal, the decorative power of the base, and the balance of the forms lend this piece an exceptional presence, making it ideal for a prestigious centerpiece or a large floral arrangement. H: 40 cm - W: 70 cm - D: 25 cm.
