Description

A rare pair of Danish wingback chairs by Mogens Lassen from the 1950s/60s. The perfect embodiment of Scandinavian comfort and the Nordic art of living, this rare pair of wingback chairs from the 1950s/60s by the renowned Danish architect and designer Mogens Lassen. Instantly recognizable by their generous proportions, their enveloping gondola-style backs, and their understated round-section wooden legs, these iconic chairs have been entirely upholstered in luxurious genuine sheepskin with an incomparably soft feel. A true comforting cocoon that will envelop you from the very first glance, this pair of armchairs with a bold character will bring an extraordinarily warm, organic, and sophisticated atmosphere to your living room, whether it's vintage-inspired or
