Description

A charming portrait of a young woman living in the first half of the 19th century. Our elegant subject wears a pretty, light white dress, accented by a red and black silk sash worn high on the waist, typical of the Restoration-Louis-Philippe period. The young woman's gaze is full of tenderness. This oil on canvas is sold with a gilded wooden frame. It is in good condition, with a few minor touch-ups to the gilding. This oil on canvas has been restored and re-stretched. This magnificent, graceful portrait is a beautiful example of the French School from the first half of the 19th century.
