Description

A lovely pair of large printed curtains - Toile de Jouy style An elegant pair of large curtains made of printed fabric, inspired by antique Toile de Jouy fabrics, featuring a charming figurative and rustic design. The delicately printed design lends these two large panels plenty of character and immediately evokes the charm of classic interiors and country estates. The curtains are lined with wool as well as a light-colored lining, giving them a beautiful drape and excellent opacity. These panels are blackout, making them particularly well-suited for dressing large windows while preserving the room's privacy. They feature attractive natural wood rings, allowing them to be hung on a rod. The set is in good overall condition, though there are a few traces of dust from previous use. A cleaning
